

Christian Schoen, Organist

March 11, 2018 - 4:00 PM ET

St. Paul's Lutheran Church

Organ Recital

Join us for an afternoon of Romantic and Contemporary era organ selections, including works by Ashwood, Diemer, Fletcher, Walton, Franck, and Wolford, performed by Christian Schoen, a former member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 5322 Palms Road, Casco (Between Meisner and Springborn Roads) will host Christian Schoen, Organist, on March 11th at 4:00 PM for an exciting program of Romantic and Contemporary era organ works. Christian is a former member of St. Paul's and the son of local residents, Paul and Susan Schoen. Admission is Free.

Selections will include Diemer's Fiesta, Ashwood's Tuba Tune, Fletcher's Toccata, Walton's Battle of Britain Introduction & March, Franck's Andantino, and many more works. The diversity of this program will appeal to a wide variety of musical tastes.

Christian Schoen has studied organ at many prestigious universities, including the University of Michigan, Southern Methodist University, Capital University, and the University of Texas. He has also had the privilege of studying with Michael Murray, who studied with Marcel Dupre, and is critically acclaimed for his recordings with Telarc. Most recently, Christian studied with Jens Korndoerfer, Concert Organist & protégé of Oliver Latry, Titular Organist at Notre Dame, Paris. Christian has performed recitals throughout the United States and the United Kingdom, with his international debut at St. Cuthbert's, London.

A reception will follow the performance to meet and greet with Christian.
